Be yourself - however you show up

By L. M. Larson

Why do we do what we do? Because when we honor our special gifts and talents we can express ourselves in a unique and fascinating manner.

What a great opportunity for parents and grandparents to reinforce with children the value of being yourself in whatever way you show up.

Sally, your ideas and artwork are so creative and lock into my memory with the messages you provide.

Thank you so much

Hugs

Lila

Cute Book for Kids who like to Wear Crazy Clothes Combinations

By Healthy Living

Most of Sally Huss's children's books have important messages about how best to live as a kid. This book has none of that. It is a book for children to say to their parents (or grandparents or guardians) that kids like their crazy outfits -- and that their clothes combinations are no nuttier than llamas who like to wear pajamas (or so they seem from a child's perspective). Indeed children's choices in clothes may be more tasteful than the preppy summer outfits.of, for example, ill-fitting Nantucket red shorts faded to pink.

This is another lovely book of cute rhymes and adorable fanciful drawings that delight the imagination. Thank you to Sally Huss for sharing them with us all.

Why do you wear what you wear? Does it make you happy?

By Angela

I found this ebook very interesting and funny! Wouldn't you if you saw any animal dressed in clothing that you would not usually view on animals? I hereby recommend this ebook for kids from ages 2-7 who loves to read rhyming animal stories with bright beautiful pictures. Because of what I saw and read here, I feel that this ebook needs five stars for this kid's ebook! I received this book for free and in return have given it an honest review. Great work Sally!
