more of exactly what you'd expect from this series

By Joshua Y. Yuan

if you haven't read any of the other books, go back and read 1-6. If you aren't sure if you'd like it, check some of the reviews. It's a silly school romantic comedy manga that doesn't have that much depth to it, so if you're into just comical things and fluff, this stuff is perfect.

There's not a whole lot concerning Mitsuru this time around, it's a significant amount of the sister, Sanada, and the new character that was introduced in volume 6 to give Sanada some background story.
