STRANGE CREATURES FROM TIME AND SPACE BY JOHN A KEEL PDF

John Keel's "Strange Creatures From Time and Space," originally published in 1970 with artwork by Frank Frazetta, is a comprehensive encyclopedia of monsters from around the world, including:

-Fantastic flying saucer occupants; True psychic phenomena; Phantom killers of people and livestock; The full story of West Virginia's man-bird, "Mothman": The elusive "Bigfoot," Sasquatch, and Yeti; Giants of Minnesota and the Appalachians; Sea serpents and lake creatures; Vampires and werewolves, Angels and demons; The dangerous and enigmatic Men in Black (MIB)

John A. Keel has been on the trail of weirdness for decades, investigating wild tales of alien abduction, hairy monsters, and mysterious entities that can terrify and even harm humans. He has become the top man in the field of the inexplicable.

Keel actually has explanations for the unusual things he recounts - which have long left others baffled. In this mountain of way-out evidence, he sees a pattern and draws original, startling, and convincing conclusions.

Keel was born in monster country - on a farm in Silver Lake, New York, home of one of America's native sea serpents. He began writing articles on UFOs in 1945, two years before the ufomania began. In 1952, he produced a Halloween broadcast from the Frankenstein Castle in Germany, and in 1954 he saw his first flying saucer while exploring the Upper Nile.

For years, Keel wandered around Asia in search of the secrets of the occult. The last American to enter Tibet from the Indian side, Keel spent weeks tracking the Yeti. After having written many books and magazine articles, Keel remains an open-minded skeptic. There is no one better qualified to report on and interpret today's flood of "anti-rational" evidence than Keel.

The book that sparked my interest in the paranormal

By Stew Weldon

30 years after my first reading of this book, I was happy to find a copy available at a fairly reasonable price. The book must be out of print as most of the used copies of it were priced way out of my price range.

I was doing some research for a presentation I was doing on the paranormal and really wanted a this book to use for a couple of citations. John Keel was a sort of pioneer of in the field of paranormal reporting. Keel cites Charles Fort as an inspiration in his pursuit of investigating the unexplained. Whereas Fort took the approach of cataloging mysterious events with cynical asides interspersed throughout. Keel takes more of a narrative approach of the subject and is adept at keeping a sense of humor throughout, with a chilling observation thrown in here and there to keep things spicy. When one bears in mind that Keel assembled this wide ranging assortment of arcane subject before the advent of computers and internet, this is a truly impressive introduction to the world that lies beyond our everyday lives. It was a a great read when I was in 7th grade and it still holds up, lo these many years later.

Fantastic Read...and More...

By Lee Scott

Fantastic read. I'm in the process of buying everything John Keel ever wrote, which is all being reprinted. Even his numerous magazine articles have just been reprinted under the titles:

-UFOS TO THE CENTER OF YOUR MIND

-OUTER LIMITS OF THE TWILIGHT ZONE

-FINDING THE STRING

I discovered John Keel's books about a year ago, perfect timing with the republishing. Keel had a theory(s) that tied together everything from ufos to ghosts, monsters, electronic voice phenomena, deja-vu and religious experience. His two books OPERATION TROJAN HORSE and OUR HAUNTED WORLD make a very convincing case for his theories.
